

ROMUN Standing Rules

Drafted 2007-2008

Membership/Application

- ✍ Membership Applications shall be received and reviewed by officers from the first day of school until the Friday following SEMMUNA, and during the period between the officer elections and the end of the school year
- ✍ All members shall be selected upon the same criteria, criteria which must be decided upon before any period of applications. Personal knowledge of applicants on the part of the officers shall not be a factor in selecting ambassadors.
- ✍ Applicants must receive permission of their parents or guardians
- ✍ In the occasion that an application requires revision, the Executive Council may allot for a rewrite of the application under the following guidelines:
 - ✍ A personal meeting between an officer and the applicant where the applicant will receive explanation of the necessity of a rewrite and have an opportunity to discuss with the officer necessary corrections.
 - ✍ Only one rewrite is allowed, with no exceptions.
 - ✍ The rewrite must be returned to an officer one week after the personal meeting is held.
 - ✍ Rejected applicants may re-apply for membership in the following membership recruitment period
